29. The layout of the event page will be simple. The header section will contain the names and images of the different speakers with links, the event venue, and the schedule. You must also include a section that describes the purpose of the event – what the event is for and which category of audience it aims to target. Section the page into smaller chunks to make it look neat. Choose the right font style, font color, and background color for individual sections on the page. Also, make sure to add a registration button so that interested people can register for the event.
